INFORMATION ON FACULTY AND DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARIES

Faculty and Departmental libraries are established to compliment the University Library’s collections in the provision of effective library services and to bring information resources closer to the identified users. Faculty and Departmental library collections are developed in line with the curriculum of study of each of the courses run in the Faculty.

LOCATION OF THE DEPARTMENTAL AND FACULTY LIBRARIES

All the Departmental and Faculty libraries are domiciled within the premises of their respective Faculties. This ensures proximity to the information resources.

OPENING HOURS

All Faculty and Departmental libraries in Benue State University are opened from 8am – 4pm, Monday – Friday. But closed during vacation and public holidays.

ADMISSION POLICY

Any of the following can be shown before entry into any of the Faculty or Departmental libraries: School Identity cards, library registration cards or ones admission letter for Benue State University students while letter of introduction is demanded before entry into the libraries by students from other Institutions.

LENDING POLICY

Faculty and Departmental libraries do not lend information resources to students but are allowed to make photocopies of any information needed.

STOCKS OF THE FACULTY AND DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARIES

The Faculty and Departmental libraries are stocked with information resources relevant to the courses offered in such Faculties.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT OF FACULTY AND DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARIES

The collection development of these libraries are done centrally at the collection development division of the main library and books relevant to the Faculty and Departmental libraries are then sent to them after the necessary processes of stamping, accessioning, classification and cataloguing are done.
